

RACE TO THE STONES

Book shuttles and parking now

Dear <<First Name>>,

We hope you had a lovely Christmas and Happy New Year! It's now time to book your shuttles and parking so you're all ready for July.

This is the third email we've sent, but as always, you can check out anything you've missed on the Participant Information Platform.

Shuttle and parking bookings now open!

SHUTTLES

We are putting on shuttle services for you to get around before and after the event.

We recommend you read 'Section 1: Getting there' of the Event Information Guide for all the details and your best options. Please click here to see the shuttle timetable for 2019.

N.B. The shuttles fill very quickly, so please book your place as soon as you can to avoid missing out.

PARKING

You are now able to book a parking spot for the event at the start, overnight basecamp or finish.

These spaces must be pre-booked using the form below and you will be sent the permit in your race pack. You do not need to book parking if you are just being picked up or dropped off.

HOW TO BOOK

Shuttles and parking are now available to book as an add-on to your current registration, via your 'MyEvents' portal. Click the below button, enter your Active login details and select the 'Additional Purchases' button within your Dixons Carphone Race to the Stones booking.

Training tips

In February your training plans will officially start, but for now take a look at the tips in the article below to help you kick-start your New Year fitness goals.

We enjoyed this article from Vitality. They suggest taking the New Year as an opportunity to reevaluate your running goals and creating a plan for how best to achieve them.
