Route Information and Gold Charity Partners

Dear <<First Name>>,

With Christmas preparations well under way, we are sure many of you are busy enjoying the festive season. However, before the year ends we do have a few more things to share with you.

This is your second email from us, but if you missed the first you can always catch up on everything we've sent by heading to the Participant Information Platform.

Find out more about the route

Meet our Gold Charity Partners

We are very excited to introduce our Gold Charity Partners for Dixon's Carphone Race to the Stones 2019: Cancer Research UK, Help for Heroes, Muscular Dystrophy UK, NSPCC, Parkinson's UK and Wiltshire Air Ambulance.

Why not get your friends and family to sign-up to a charity package, or you can choose to fundraise on top of your current package by setting up a fundraising page here on Virgin Money Giving.

Join the community

We have a Trail Series forum set up on Facebook. This is a great place to connect with other participants, share tips and hear advice from current and past participants.

In addition to this, for all the photos from the events, special offers and the latest updates, make sure you follow us on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Trail tips

If this is your first ever ultra-marathon, we have found some excellent advice to help tackle this challenge. Take a look at this Ordnance Survey article which gives a great insight into ultra running for beginners with tips on training, tackling the event and what to expect from the experience. This should set you up nicely for starting your training plan in a couple of months.
